CENSORED. Heavy masking tape obscures the advertising on the Finish Line Express messenger service office, 1415 Twenty-first St., following the arrest of one employee for the third time in two days at 4:15 p.m.

Friday. A second employee was arrested under the city's anti-gambling code, also Friday. A section of the ordinance prohibits advertising any type of betting in the city.

Arrests at Finish Line

Queen Ester Dean, 41, of East St. Louis, an employee of the Finish Line Express messenger service office, 1415 Twenty-first St., was arrested once on Thursday and twice on Friday and a second employee, Oriana R. Wilson, 55, of Washington Park, was arrested Friday.

Printing on the large window of the office was obscured by masking tape after the arrests Friday, under a section of the city's anti-gambling ordinance which prohibits advertising gambling.

Mrs. Dean initially was arrested at 3:25 p.m. Thursday and charged on two counts under the new City Ordinance 3481, enacted by the Granite City Council May 2 and signed by Mayor Paul Schuler May 3, after the employee allegedly transacted the first business deal with a customer.

The charge later was amended to conform to the earlier city ordinance when it was learned the new statute is not valid until 10 days after publication.

Ordinance 3481 is published in today's issue of the Press-Record.

Mrs. Dean was arrested by Detective Sergeant Don Knight at 2:06 p.m. Friday on a charge of advertising gambling and again at 4:10 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Wilson was arrested at 2:05 p.m. Friday and released at 3:50 p.m. on payment of $50 cash bond.

Mrs. Dean appeared before Judge George Moran at 3:25 p.m. Thursday and was released from custody at 5 p.m. on payment of $100 cash bond.

Section One of the new ordinance states: "It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to accept any wager or bet on any horse race, which person, firm or corporation thereafter places or intends to place said wager or bet at an authorized race track, irrespective of where a fee is charged."

Section Two states: "It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to knowingly own or possess any book, instrument or apparatus by means of which bets or wagers have been, or are recorded or registered."

A third section prohibits anyone having possession of "any money which he has received in the course of a bet or wager."

The new ordinance does not affect legalized bingo and the state lotteries. Fines for violation range from $25 to $500 for each offense.

Reportedly, the first customer to be served at the Finish Line Express' office here Thursday was a 46-year-old Granite City man, who walked into the messenger service and looked at the Fairmount Race Track Program.

Carnival to help light sports field

"Fun and games" are getting under way here this week to benefit a $75,000 financial drive to provide lighting at the baseball-softball athletic complex on Fehling Road.

The Granite City South Letterman's Club is among the groups that will be active at the Lighting Fund Carnival today through Sunday, May 14.

Various civic service groups will provide off-street supervised parking in the Coolidge Junior High School and Memorial Gymnasium parking lots. Parking fees will be $1, and all proceeds will go to the lighting fund.

The Granite City South Booster Club will operate a hot dog and soft drink concession stand on the carnival site, again denoting all proceeds to the fund for installation of lights.

Two booths are still available on the carnival site for a group or organization wishing to assist the lighting drive, it was noted.

Interested groups may contact James Dumont, principal, Granite City High School South, 877-1512, for details.

The lighting fund will receive a guarantee of $3,000 plus 25 percent of the total receipts from the rides and attractions featured by the carnival.

Warren Decatur, chairman of the lighting fund committee, said a contract has been signed with Century 21 Shows to provide the carnival midway of rides and concessions.

A special matinee will be held Thursday from 1 to 7 p.m. for which tickets will be sold at $5 to permit patrons to ride all carnival attractions as often as they wish.

Decatur said other fundraising activities are planned to build the $75,000 sports complex.

GC woman abducted, raped; another shot

A 22-year-old Granite City woman was abducted and raped and a woman companion of Caseyville, was shot shortly after 3:30 a.m. Sunday.

A third woman, also of Granite City, was permitted to run away with her injured friend as their assailant drove away with the other victim.

The three women were accosted at gunpoint while seated in their car waiting for a train to pass on the Alton & Southern tracks at Morrison Road in Nameoki Township, according to the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Sewer job to begin

Work will begin May 15 at two locations on the $15 million township sewer project in the Special Sewer Area 1. The first two excavation sites in the sewer project will be in the Benjamin Addition north of Granite City in Venice Township and in Mitchell, with work beginning simultaneously at both sites.

The delay came when the contractors and members of the Madison County Special Sewer Committee studied several suggested changes in the wording.

Minor changes were made to clarify several areas which put the contractors and the committee in complete agreement.

The project will include the construction of collector and interceptor sewers in a portion of Venice Township in addition to Nameoki and Chouteau Townships which will empty into Granite City sewers at the Granite City Army Installation for treatment in the city's primary and secondary treatment facilities.

bullet traveled up her arm, breaking it.

The one Granite City woman and the girl who was shot by the man were told to "start running."

The other woman from Granite City was ordered into the car and the man drove off. Deputies believe the man drove the car near Illinois Route 111 and Engineer Road, where he allegedly stopped and forced her into the trunk of the auto.

The abductor then drove to a secluded area in East St. Louis, raped the victim and left her there.

She reportedly ran some distance to a factory where security guards called the East St. Louis police.

The Madison County Sheriff's department is asking anyone who also may have been stopped by the train at 3:30 a.m. Sunday if they saw anything unusual to call the detective section at 692-4433.

Anyone contacting the Sheriff's department has been assured by Sheriff's authorities the information will be held in confidence.

The 20-year-old Caseyville woman has been admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital suffering the gunshot wound.

The Granite City woman who was raped was treated and released at an East St. Louis hospital.

Police quell melee; two taverns closed

Two Granite City taverns, Sammy's at 921 Niedringhaus Ave., and Courthouse at 916 Niedringhaus Ave., were closed by police and their liquor licenses taken on orders of Mayor Paul Schuler following several fights at 12:15 a.m. Sunday.

A Granite City police officer reported he was helping a motorist behind the American Steel Credit Union when he heard someone yelling.

He said he observed a group estimated between 15 to 20 men come from the direction of the Courthouse tavern and go into Sammy's.

He called for assistance and police broke up several fights at the Chestnut Street side door of Sammy's. They said they went inside the tavern and broke up several other fights and ordered the tavern closed.

Police then went to the Courthouse tavern, ordered the bar closed and everyone out.

Several persons involved in the fights were identified by police as wearing motorcycle club jackets.

Madison police were called to

4 Illinois Republicans have presidential hopes

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record

Illinois has no shortage of ambitious Republican politicians. The state branch of the GOP tree has four Republicans who consider themselves potential presidential timber: Gov. James Thompson, Sen. Charles Percy, Cong. John B. Anderson (Rockford and Cong. Philip M. Crane of Mt. Prospect.

Whether a sufficient number of their peers shares their self-assessment to qualify them as serious contenders probably will be known before Thompson meets in August 1980 to select their standardbearer.

None of the four is an openly avowed contender. But each has sufficient stature that a full-fledged presidential bid, or even trial ballooning, cannot be lightly dismissed as purely self-aggrandizement.

Thompson, who rose to fame as a federal prosecutor by jailing Chicago Democrats, was touted as a presidential possibility even before he was elected governor by a record-breaking 1,300,000 vote plurality in his first bid for any elective office.

Now running for re-election, he is not openly courting presidential speculation. But he does not shoot it down either by committing himself to serve a full four-year term if re-elected Thompson, at 42, is one of those "new faces" that the GOP always talks about but never gets around to running for the nation's highest office.

There have been suggestions that the presidential parade may have passed Percy by. He created an exploratory committee to assess his prospects in 1973 but put his plans on the back burner a year later when Gerald Ford decided to seek election.

Percy, 59, running for a third six-year Senate term, is not actively engaged in presidential planning.

But if the moderate-liberal wing of the GOP seeks a counter to a conservative candidate, Percy, along with Thompson, would have to be considered.

Crane and Anderson, poles apart politically, are the newest Illinois entrants and have been more definite than Thompson or Percy in outlining their presidential aspirations.

Crane, chairman and a founder of the American Conservative Union, says he would consider being the candidate — for conservatives to rally around — if Ronald Reagan does not run.

He is not — contrary to a recent inaccurate wire service report — saying he definitely will run if Reagan does not. Anderson is giving thought to running as a counter to conservatives.

"My quarrel is not with conservatives per se but with the so-called 'new right,'" Anderson said.

Anderson regards the "New Right" — which tried unsuccessfully to unseat him in the primary — as representing points of view beyond the scope of traditional conservative Republican organizations.

Since both also are considering challenging Sen. Adlai Stevenson, D-Ill., in 1980, the suspicious might view their presidential talk as but a gambit to garner public attention.

But each of them regards the other as being serious. And they are regarded on Capitol Hill as intelligent, articulate spokesmen who get national attention for their opposing points of view.

Crane says it is a test-up whether Anderson or Thompson would prove more of a challenge to the conservatives. "Jim has got good recognition," said Crane. "He burst on the scene like a bombshell with his initial victory, and he is certain to win again by a landslide. And Thompson is one of those 'new faces'."

"But I think Anderson is vastly more articulate, and he could present the liberal case more effectively."

While Crane tends to discount Percy, Anderson thinks the state's senior senator cannot be ruled out.

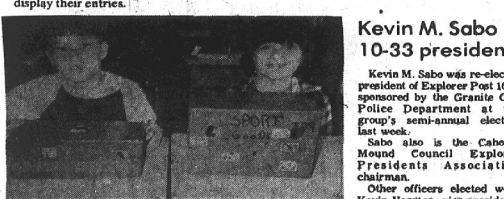

Percy, like Thompson, also won with a million-plus plurality in his last time out and is favored to win big again.

Anderson agrees that the fact that four Illinoisans are in the picture could diminish their individual strengths nationally. "It does complicate things," he said.

"But that is a situation that could shake itself out in a couple of years."

BUILDINGS of varying heights and dimensions are shown by fifth grade students of Roy Seamen at Stallings School, who constructed the miniature size buildings and installed wiring circuits for doorbells and lighting. John Free, left, and Billy Schneider display their entries.

Clean air board to meet tonight

Granite City's Air Pollution Control Board will discuss its program operations with Dr. Robert Frost of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency at a regular board meeting today at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the board offices at 2301 Adams St. The board also will hear financial reports, a review of general surveillance activities by Casmer Skubish and a review of monthly activities by Jim Henry, according to the agenda.

Gary Brooks will present a review of ambient air sampling and the status of the board's application for federal grant funds will be discussed.

Driver charged

Thomas Moore, 20, of 3008 E. 23rd St., Apt. 6, was charged with failure to give information after an accident and driving without a driver's license after his auto allegedly struck a light standard at Namecki Road and Route 102 (Edwardville Road) at 11:50 p.m. Wednesday, and then left the scene.

A policeman noted the light standard had been knocked into the street and he put it on the median. A hubcap also was found nearby. The officer then searched the area and found a stalled car at East 23rd Street and Namecki Road which had damage to the front end and a hubcap missing.

He questioned the motorist who said the car would not start. The officer said he then noticed that the hubcaps matched the one found at the scene and arrested the motorist.

Car inspections ahead? air workshop Thursday

(East-West Gateway Coordinating Council)
The air we breathe every day is polluted. Air in the St. Louis region fails to meet national standards for four major kinds of pollution.

Two of them come primarily from cars and other vehicles; the other two are produced primarily by furnaces, smelters, and other manufacturing and construction processes.

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council has been chosen by the states of Missouri and Illinois to take the lead role in planning for improving air quality in the St. Louis area. Since over half of all air pollution in our region comes from cars, Gateway is taking a close look at ways to reduce pollution by using cars more efficiently and changing wasteful habits.

These include carpooling and vanpooling, improved public transit and flexible work hours; and more drastic measures such as mandatory auto emission inspection and maintenance, private car restrictions, and rush-hour road tolls on single-occupant cars. Will controls like these have to be used? A lot depends on individual efforts. Voluntary carpooling and emission system maintenance could reduce air pollution and help make restrictive control measures unnecessary.

The first public event of the St. Louis air quality planning process will be a citizen workshop on Thursday, May 11, at 7 p.m. at the Rodeway Inn, Jefferson and Market, St. Louis (just north of Highway 40).

Citizens are invited from throughout the metropolitan area, both Missouri and Illinois. For more information, they may call the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council at 274-2750.

Product liability time limit urged

A statewide poll conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business indicates that a large number of Illinois small business people favor legislation that would establish a statute of limitations on product liability cases. NFIB has 525,000 members nationwide, including nearly 16,000 in Illinois.

Of that number, 98 percent said they favored establishing a statute of limitations which would allow lawsuits involving products to be filed only within a specified number of years after purchase.

Similar statutes have been established in other states as one means of lowering liability insurance costs.

Seventy-nine percent of those affected by the product liability issue said that either the cost or availability of insurance is one of their major problems. Sixty-three percent said their product liability premiums have increased by more than 50 percent during the past two years, and 35 percent said they have had difficulty securing liability insurance.

In other results of the NFIB poll, 72 percent of the small business people said they opposed a school district income tax act now being considered by the Illinois General Assembly. The act would allow a school system to levy a local income tax if approved by a public vote.

Twenty-three percent said they favored the proposal and five percent gave no opinion.

Fifty-three percent of the respondents said they favored passage of legislation which would prohibit non-farm corporations from becoming directly involved in farming. Thirty-nine percent were opposed to such legislation and eight percent were undecided.

Eighty-five percent of the respondents said they opposed lower utility rates for certain low-income users, the cost of which would be shifted to all other users. Ten percent favored the lower rates and five percent were undecided.

Among the allotments to 18 school districts was $116,809 to Granite City School District 9 with an immediate payment of $50,622; allocation of $20,461 to Madison School District 12 with immediate payment of $1,094 and $9,419 to Venice School District 3 with an immediate payment of $380.

News notes

Illinois unemployment fell to 5.9 percent in April, a 4 percent decrease from the March rate of 6.3. And U.S. joblessness dropped from 6.2 to 6 percent, the lowest since October 1974.

University of California researchers said Thursday that Vallum, the most widely prescribed drug in the nation, has side effects that could be hazardous, especially to pregnant women.

Led by food and jewelry costs, wholesale prices rose 1.3 percent in April, the largest gain in 41 months.

A state inspection of the Madison County jail has reaffirmed that the facility is substandard and cannot be substantially improved; a new jail currently is being built. The annual study of the jail by the Illinois Corrections Department cited cracked and building walls. While health, medical and food services were approved, the state urged more personnel for adequate 24-hour supervision, including checking inmates every half-hour.

In a 5,298 to 1,451 vote Sunday, members of Machinists District 837 at McDonnell-Douglas Corp. ratified a new three-year contract, containing a pay increase of about 68 cents an hour over the next three years and major improvements in the primary and early retirement plans. The group has between 1,000 and 12,000 members at McDonnell-Douglas.

Beginning May 27, the ride to the top of the Gateway Arch will be expanded to 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. every day. Current hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Friday through Sunday. Nearly one million people ride the transporters each year, making the Arch one of the most popular tourist sites in the world.

popular tourist sites in the world. The Missouri Highway Patrol issued 491 speeding tickets and 515 warning citations Thursday along I-44, between St. Louis and the Oklahoma line, a distance of 285 miles. Previous crackdowns to enforce the federally mandated 55 mph limit recently netted several hundred motorists on Interstates 70 and 55.

A total of 220 Illinois school districts has filed for exemptions from minimum school day attendance requirements, mainly because of the harsh winter. State School Superintendent Joseph M. Cronin is expected to approve the exemptions, otherwise, the districts would face the loss of some state aid.

The Seven-Up Co. board of directors unanimously recommended to its shareholders Saturday that they reject the tender offer of Philip Morris Inc. to purchase Seven-Up common stock at $41 per share. Seven-Up's founding families and the company's management previously said they consider the offer of $440 million for all the company's outstanding stock inadequate.

Final legislative approval of a proposal to extend indefinitely the corporate personal property tax highlighted action Thursday.

Some school terms to be shortened due to weather

State School Supt. Joseph M. Cronin said last week he expects to approve again this year more than 100 requests from school districts for "act of God" waivers of the minimum school term.

"As was the case a year ago," the superintendent said, "the harsh winter took its toll in school closings due to ice, snow, fuel shortages and power outages. Fortunately, school districts unable to hold classes the required 176 days may be excused with no loss in state aid if their failure to meet the minimum term was due to acts of God."

More than 100 schools systems took advantage of the "act of God" provision last year and were granted approval for at least some of the days, Cronin said.

Earlier this year, the Illinois Office of Education which Cronin heads had asked local-level school officials to adjust schedules and modify vacations in order to make up as much as possible for days lost during the winter.

"Many districts cancelled or shortened their spring recess and others will extend the school year into June as needed," according to the superintendent.

He said boards and superintendents also were asked to submit formal requests for waivers, stating how many days they have made up or will make up. Those requests, along with recommendations of regional superintendents, are currently being reviewed by the state education agency staff, he added.

Supt. Cronin said he has written Gov. James Thompson, advising him, "We will do our best to balance the important goal of maintaining a full year of education for all children with the need to cushion financial and scheduling hardships on schools after such a winter." Thompson had requested that requests for waivers be approved.

GC council to discuss overpass

The Granite City Council will meet in a special session at 7 p.m. Tuesday to discuss engineering matters concerning the proposed downtown overpass and some uncompleted phases of the city's secondary sewage treatment plant on the grounds of the Army Installation.

Aaron Pierson, vice-president of the M. W. Architects & Engineers, St. Louis, is scheduled to attend the meeting to answer questions by council members concerning the two projects. The M. W. firm handled the engineering work on the sewage treatment plant project and is handling similar work on the overpass project. Mayor Paul Schuler told council members a week ago that the planning and construction schedule for the $6-million overpass job has been running behind, a factor that could endanger the city's applications for grant funds under the Federal Aid to Urban System projects.

Schuler noted also that some phases of the sewage treatment plant construction are still uncompleted and that council members may have questions concerning that project.

The discussion concerning the treatment plant may involve questions about the feasibility of hiring an outside administrative organization to supervise operation of the treatment plant as a possible economy move. Alderman Fred "Pat" Schuman proposed during a regular council meeting last week that the city "look into" the possibility of such a plan, noting that the city should determine whether it is cheaper for the city to operate the treatment plant "on its own" or to hire an administrator.

Woman foils purse snatcher

A Madison woman putting groceries in the trunk of an auto in the Price Crusher parking area on Fehling Road, fell someone tugging at her purse, being carried over an arm, and saw a black man, about 19 years old, attempting to pull the purse away. The shopper turned around and kicked the man in the groin and he doubled up with pain, she told Granite City police Thursday. She made a few remarks to the man and also to several people standing around who had offered no assistance, and then she drove away from the lot, she informed officers.

Madison school evaluation

The Madison School District will receive a recommendation for full recognition by the Illinois State Board of Education based on an evaluation inspection made Monday, April 17.

The Madison Board of Education reviewed a seven-page school evaluation form at its Thursday night meeting.

The evaluation team consisted of Harold Briggs, Elmer Jackson, Joe Brewer, C. A. Nicolet and Phillip D. Garrett.

The summary report read in part, "The educational needs of children are being met in an adequate delivery system, given the constraints of a delayed building program, a temporary segregation plan and shrinking revenue."

"A positive learning climate is most apparent in each attendance center as is excellent housekeeping. The materials provided for the visitation were in outstanding order."

It was noted in the report that the Madison Junior High School students are on two shifts of four clock hours each, which is not recommended, but the district has permission to operate on multiple shifts for the 1977-78 year.

The board also was informed that the opening of the new middle school will end the double shifts and other minor problems within the district.

The board tabled for further clarification a letter from the building administrators which asked for a policy-making committee.

Members of the community relations committee were at the board meeting and discussed forming a fine arts committee and incorporate a comprehensive fine arts program.

The board gave permission for the administrators to meet with the community relations committee and study the recommendation.

The board accepted with regrets the resignation of Mrs. Bernadine Weidner as clerk at the Harris School. She has worked at the school 13 years.

The resignation of Adele

Wayfak, a clerical aide for eight years at Harris School, also was accepted with regrets.

The board approved plans for a girls' "All Sports" award banquet on Wednesday, May 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the Madison High School cafeteria, and a boy's track team banquet and sport award night on Thursday, May 19, at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Madison School rate up

Taxpayers of Madison School District 12 will pay school tax bills this summer on a new rate of $2.22 per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 12.2 cents above last year's rate of $1.11. School board members were informed in a meeting Thursday night.

The rate increase followed a cut of $2.3 million in the district's assessed valuation which has been set at $20,787,320 for the 1977 tax year on which bills will be based for collection this year. Last year's valuation was $23,186,478.

Virtually all of the district's rate increase is in two funds — an increase of 7.5 cents in the municipal retirement fund rate which has been set at 40.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation this year, and an increase of 4.5 cents in the rate for bonds and interest, set at 61.4 cents this year.

A breakdown of the new rate and the amount levied for collection include:

Education fund, $376,000 levied, rate $1.60 per $100 valuation; building fund, $88,125 levied, 37.5 cents rate; transportation fund $28,200, 12 cent rate; municipal rate retirement $84,999 and 40.9 cents; fire prevention and safety $11,750 levy and 5 cents rate; special education $9,400 and 4 cents rate; bonds and interest $127,511 levy and 61.4 cents rate, and liability insurance $4,911 levy and 2.4-cent rate.

The total amount of the levy is set at $730,897.

Bulk of Cong. Price's income is from salary

While Illinois Congressman Sidney R. Yates and Morgan F. Murphy, Chicago Democrats, have net worth of more than $500,000 each, Congressman Melvin Price of this district — dean of the Illinois delegation — has assets of less than $50,000.

A more detailed financial disclosure than in the past was revealed Thursday in Washington through new statements required by 1977 House rules.

The local Democrat's income in the last three months of 1977 was $15,795, of which $14,375 was Congressional salary. Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, Price has no interest in any defense-related industry.

He has $1,000 to $5,000 stock holdings in the Lincoln Trail Bank, Lebanon Bankshares, Illinois Bankshares, Edgemont Bank, Mississippi River Fuel, Texas Utilities, Arkansas Western Gas, Central Telephone and Utilities and Technology Fund.

Price has no major debts.

Lung group honors Curry

Kenneth E. Curry, Wood River, has been named volunteer of the year by the board of directors of the Lewis-Clark Lung Association. Credited with over 120 hours of volunteer service to the Christmas seal group, he will be honored at a special luncheon Tuesday in Peoria during the 69th annual meeting of the Illinois Lung Association.

Curry, who served with the Navy in both World War II and the Korean war, has been disabled for the past four years. In the fiscal year ended March 31, he gave 128 hours of his time to the Lewis-Clark Lung Association, rendering such services as assisting with Christmas seal campaign mail, delivering health education materials to schools and hospitals, and driving a mobile animated education unit on smoking for a total for 796 miles.

The local association serves Madison, Jersey and Calhoun counties.

Curry's wife, Norma, is administrative assistant to the director of the Lewis-Clark Lung Association and has been an employee of the Christmas seal group since 1941.

Thirteen regional and affiliated associations were eligible to designate a candidate for the Illinois Lung Association's volunteer of the year. William Barth, Wood River, recipient of the state award last year, will present a plaque to the honored volunteer tomorrow.

Lung associations are a continuation of the Tuberculosis Association, which was founded in 1907 by the late Emily P. Bissell of Wilmington, Del. Miss Bissell, with the help of several other volunteers, originated the Christmas seal campaign in America.

to get out of the taverns, police said.

The authority is responsible for developing a new airport for the St. Louis metropolitan area at the Columbia-Waterloo site in Illinois.

It has been seeking approval of a $324,700 budget for the 1978-79 fiscal year starting July 1.

This was compared with $1,115,827 appropriated by the State of Missouri for the Missouri-St. Louis Metropolitan Airport Authority for the same period.

The Missouri Authority, with a $621,738 budget for the 1977-78 year, was established to oppose seeking more information for state and mental health offices around the country.

The United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, composed of Judges Wilbur F. Pell Jr., Philip W. Tone and Thomas R. McMillen, reached a unanimous decision in support of the Illinois law, noting that none of the other cases striking down state laws had been presented with the quality of expert testimony presented by Attorney General Scott's staff.

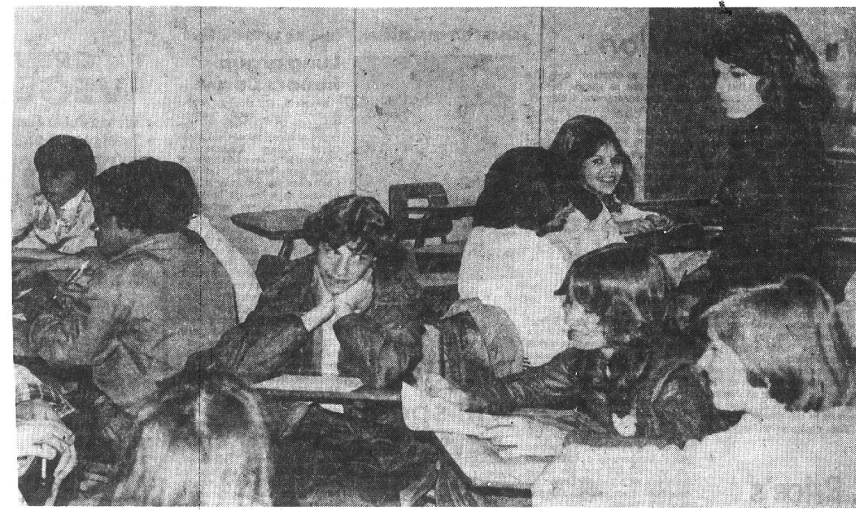

Special Assistant Attorney General Alan E. Grischke presented the case on behalf of the Illinois Department of Mental Health.

Grischke argued to the court that it is necessary for the state to have the power to protect the mentally ill from themselves, and to protect others, without waiting for an overt act to occur before seeking commitment.

The court in its decision observed that attorneys for the ill could raise the question of the absence of an overt act and a case-by-case basis, in an attack on whether or not there was "clear and convincing" evidence to support the commitment of an individual.

The three-judge panel assessed the costs of the action against the plaintiff, the Cook County Legal Assistance Foundation.

The original suit was filed in 1972.

STATE STUDENT COUNCILS MEET. At Grigsby Junior High School on Friday and Saturday 600 junior high school student council representatives and 100 advisers from the state of Illinois gathered for a conference. Susan Landys, standing, a Student Council member from Granite City High School North, leads a discussion group on how to get more students interested in cooperating with their student councils. The statewide event was coordinated by James Swanick, Grigsby Junior High School student council adviser.

Earlier 'saturation' due at Lambert Field

Recent developments make it clear that "Lambert Field will be saturated much earlier than was anticipated and that the massive delays which Secretary of Transportation Brock Adams foresaw will occur, the Illinois House Appropriations Committee was told last week.

In testimony at a budget hearing in Springfield, Arven H. Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, said: "We strongly believe Lambert will not be able to meet future aviation demands of the St. Louis area."

"Traffic has increased dramatically as a result of new airlines, the result of increasing the number of passenger volume which can be expected from further efforts at deregulation."

the airport at Columbia-Waterloo; it doesn't operate Lambert. The Illinois Authority's budget this year is $363,600.

"Our efforts will concentrate on the fundamental changes which have taken place since March 1977, when Secretary Adams temporarily stopped federal funding for land acquisition at Columbia-Waterloo," Saunders said.

"We are monitoring the substantial aircraft delays at Lambert which have resulted from increases in traffic."

"We are preparing a study which will assess the effects that deregulation of airlines will have on future aviation growth."

"We are monitoring legal actions on aircraft noise which are occurring at Lambert Field and elsewhere."

Beyond these factors, Saunders asserted, an early resumption of federal funding is "essential" because the Columbia-Waterloo site is coming under heightened urbanization and development pressures. It will not remain available indefinitely.

"Secretary Adams said he assumed that the availability of the site could be assured without land banking."

"However, he subsequently sent to Congress a special study calling for land banking of airport sites because of the kind of pressures that are now occurring at Columbia-Waterloo."

Arrests

The man allegedly walked up to the window and asked to place his on the second horse in the eighth race at the Fairmount track.

The customer reportedly gave Mrs. Dean a $10 bill and she wrote down the race number, horse number and amount, giving the man a copy.

Det. Knight advised Mrs. Dean she was under arrest only after she had handed the receipt and change to the customer, it was alleged.

All items relating to betting found in the office were confiscated and taken to police headquarters.

All area divers and persons wishing to know more about the sport of skin and scuba diving are invited to attend Tuesday's business session, Adams said. The traditional Memorial Day dive will take place May 27 and May 28 at Pontiac Boat Dock on Bull Shoals Lake, Mo.

$400 IN COINS TAKEN

Elizabeth Amtmann, 2284 Glen Drive, discovered at 5 p.m. Sunday that a small brown leather shaver case containing about $400 worth of silver coins and silver certificates had been removed from a hall closet.

During the past six weeks, the kit contained American and British commemorative coins and silver certificates. There were no signs of forced entry.

Series of hearings on school nutrition

Madison-St. Clair counties, Peoria and Chicago have been selected as locations for three public hearings to evaluate and make recommendations regarding the nutritional value of school lunch and breakfast programs throughout Illinois.

Representative Joe E. Lucco (D-Edwardsville), chairman of the Elementary and Secondary Education panel on House Resolution 85, said the hearings with time and locations to be announced shortly, will give particular attention to the quality of school food programs in the three regions.

Lucco said, "Illinois House Resolution 85 was passed following a recent survey which reported that the lunch and breakfast programs in Chicago area schools did not meet the nutritional value required by the United States Department of Agriculture."

Lucco said the survey reported that school meals in some areas often do not taste or look good, and that children refuse to eat them and thus are deprived of the nutrition they need for physical and mental growth.

According to the resolution, a major reason for the poor nutritional value of some school lunch programs is that "control of food quality has been left to educators who are little interested in or even hostile toward school lunch programs."

Another factor, according to the House resolution, is a "lack of stringent federal guidelines which would insure that the students get good, hot meals."

Lucco said he will welcome testimony at the hearings from children as well as other interested persons.

Canteen Creek flooding study

Booker Associates, Inc., St. Louis, has been selected by the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Water Resources, to conduct a strategic planning study for Canteen Creek in Madison and St. Clair counties.

The study will determine the average annual damages caused by flooding from Canteen Creek and will recommend measures to reduce these losses. There are four major elements to the study:

1. Determination of the damage through detailed hydrologic analysis of the watershed, using a computer model to calculate discharge frequency curves for points where damages occur.
2. An hydraulic analysis of the stream to determine water surface elevation for various discharges using aerial mapping to supplement field measurements.
3. Determination of average annual damages caused by flooding through integration of stage damage curves with stage discharge curves.
4. An analysis of measures which would reduce damages with a benefit-cost ratio established for each alternative or combination of improvements.

The project will be coordinated with communities affected by flooding, and citizen participation will be encouraged.

A report outlining the hydrologic, hydraulic and economic aspects of the study along with a recommended plan of improvement is expected to be completed by September.

A witness said the car was northbound in the alley behind the home, struck the rear concrete steps and the house and then stopped. The driver got out and pushed the car from the house and a passenger got behind the steering wheel, the witness said.

The car then drove from the scene but police stopped it in the alley nearby. Liquor was found in the car and the men were arrested. There was extensive damage to the left side and pieces of concrete on the hood and top.

Moussette, 22, of 2119 Nevada St., was charged with disorderly conduct after an incident at the home of Linda Norris, 137 Wilson Park Lane, at 1:30 p.m. Sunday during which two front windows of the home were broken.

Mrs. Norris said four women came to her home and an argument developed during which the women allegedly used loud and abusive language. Mrs. Norris then closed the door and alleged one of the women broke two windows with a rock.

The four then got into a car and left the scene, but two men who witnessed the incident followed them, getting a license number of the auto.

Police found the car at Donna Jones' home and arrested the two young women there. It was reported. Both were released on notices to appear in court.

Report on Finances:

St. Elizabeth Hospital is a big business, one of the largest businesses in Madison County employing over 1100 people. And like any business we charge for our services and pay our associates and suppliers for their work and goods.

In 1977, our charges to hospital inpatients were more than 19.9 million dollars. Other income, which came from Emergency Room visits, out patient services, and other programs dedicated to the health of our community, brought the total hospital revenue to 22.6 million dollars.

From this total 2.4 million dollars was deducted for care to charity patients, services rendered to Medicare and Medicaid patients for which the hospital was not reimbursed, allowances, and uncollectable accounts. This left the hospital with about 20.2 million dollars in net revenue from all sources.

From this money, 9.7 million dollars was paid in salaries and wages to hospital associates. An additional 9.4 million dollars was spent on supplies and the general expenses of the hospital. After these expenses were paid about 1.1 million dollars was funded in depreciation for future growth and development.

St. Elizabeth Hospital does not make a profit as does private business, nor do any of its corporation members or board members receive any pay or dividends. Each year a very detailed budget is set and followed, insuring that patients pay only what is fair for the services they receive, and with only enough surplus to insure that St. Elizabeth remains the up-to-date medical provider the community deserves.

Letter from the President

Dear Friends,

At our Auxiliary's Christmas party last year I explained our Sisters' commitment to St. Elizabeth Hospital and our promise to serve this community with all the resources we can muster.

At our board meeting in January of 1977 our Board of Trustees renewed our hospital's commitment to meet your future health needs by launching our 18 million dollar expansion program.

Each day our 1100 associates renew their commitment by efficiently meeting their responsibilities. Whether they be routine tasks or dramatic life-saving events, our associates are here to care for your specific needs.

Each day our physicians' commitment to your health is borne out by long hours of direct patient care and additional hours of medical research and study, in order to maintain a working familiarity with innovative and current medical theory and practice, and to insure the very best in patient care.

Each day our Ladies Auxiliary, Volunteer Staff, and Candy Strippers give many hours of their time to cheer and comfort our patients.

We at St. Elizabeth, in our commitment to health care, "wish you well."

Sincerely,

Maybe you don't make a $3,000 loan every day, but we do.

Actually, that's just a middle-size loan for us these days. We make some for less. And a lot for a lot more.

So we're not a "small-loan" company, but a large loan center. And a good one.

Homeowner loans, too.

When you're after really large amounts, the equity in your home is a valuable asset. You can use that equity to back very sizable loans from us. And that's nice to know.

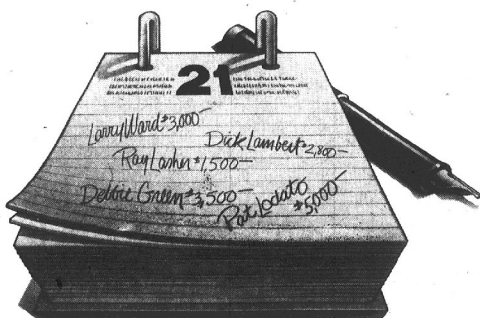

Next time you want money, whatever the reason, think of us. If you're more comfortable feeling you can depend on us for small loans, we really don't mind. Because you can.

But remember, we mostly think big.

Certificate to hospital

Hospital Administrative Services (HAS) has awarded St. Elizabeth Hospital with a certificate of recognition on behalf of the American Hospital Association.

This certificate recognizes St. Elizabeth Hospital as voluntarily participating in a management information program designed to contain costs and monitor productivity. Sister Mary Thomas, president of the hospital, stated, "The HAS program provides the type of data I require to formulate future management decisions.

"We have participated in HAS for 11 years and find the quantitative information extremely valuable.

"We not only receive information based on our internal operation but also are able to participate in comparisons with other institutions of like size."

The HAS program was begun in 1959 and presently has over 3,000 participating institutions.

Should GC schools or Opportunity Commission teach four-year-olds?

A proposal for the Granite City Board of Education to turn over its Head Start preschool program to the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, which would then conduct its own Head Start program in GC school facilities, was tabled by the Granite City Board of Education last week so members can obtain additional information and opinions.

Edward Schenk, Alton, executive director of the Madison County EOC, has proposed that the school district turn over its preschool center and its Title I program for four-year-olds to the EOC. The school district would be responsible for building, maintenance, basic utilities, insurance and other costs, in return for which about $189,000 appropriated for the current Title I program — would be freed to be used for remedial mathematics and reading programs in all district schools, if the federal government would approve the new program.

One is that the Board of Education would lose control over the program, except that it would have the ability to discontinue the contract with the EOC at any time it felt the program was not being conducted in the best interests of students.

Another consideration was that the EOC would have different guidelines for deciding which students could attend the Head Start classes, thus denying continued participation in the program for some families currently involved in it.

The EOC has indicated its program would serve about the same number of children currently being served, approximately 120.

However, the young students would be selected on the basis of family income, with a maximum income of $5,200 for families with one child.

Currently, they are selected from "target schools" which Title I has approved as being schools in lower-income areas or serving low-income children. Some parents who object to allowing the EOC to operate the program contend that the target school method allows a cross-section of students from various economic backgrounds to participate, rather than singling out low-income and "welfare" children as a separate class.

There also is concern among current Head Start teachers that the quality of the pre-school program might decrease if it is not under the school board's supervision.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent, related that a December letter from Economic Opportunity Commission Executive Director Schenk asked that the Granite City district "make available for use by its agency a number of classrooms for pre-school classes in the school's presently served by Title I."

"The only response which we were able to make to this request was that this number of rooms at these locations was simply not available. There was no further communication until over its Head Start program with Schenk in late March.

"At that time, we discussed alternative means of conducting its own Head Start program in GC school facilities, was tabled by the Granite City Board of Education last week so members can obtain additional information and opinions. Edward Schenk, Alton, executive director of the Madison County EOC, has proposed that the school district turn over its preschool center and its Title I program for four-year-olds to the EOC.

"Since they have received greatly-increased funding from the federal government, it is now their desire to eliminate the summer program and operate a program during the regular school year for four-year-old children."

"By doing this, their program would be providing a competitive program for essentially the same children which we are presently serving with the Title I Pre-School."

"The establishment of such a program would make it doubtful that we could continue to receive approval, or that we would want to fund our pre-school program through Title I."

"The establishment of their program would make it possible for us to use the funds currently being spent on the Pre-School — approximately $189,000 — to fund the present Title I Reading Program or provide other services to serve more children in the district."

"Mrs. Ruth Lahr has participated in all the meetings with Mr. Schenk, and is in agreement with the proposal of recommending discontinuing of the Title I Pre-School Program and the use of those funds for expansion of Title I services to other children in the district."

"Discontinuation of the present Pre-School Program would release for transfer to other available positions within the school district: four teachers, one nurse and one custodian."

"Because of the limited number of aide positions in the district, it is doubtful that there will be openings for the five people presently employed in this category."

"The elimination of this program would also eliminate any need for the old Logan building where the pre-school classes are presently housed."

"It was our proposal to the EOC that, as a consideration for their allocation of $110,000, we operate a local pre-school program, we would recommend making the facility available to them without charge."

"This offer would be made with the understanding that their program would serve approximately the same number of children — 120 in at least six classes — as are presently served by the Title I Program. The proposed terms of the agreement were outlined in a letter to Schenk."

Dewey Melton, who serves as the school board's representative on the Title I Advisory Committee, noted that the citizen committee has voted 14 to 4 in favor of the EOC proposal, and that the committee has recommended that the district give the program a chance."

He said those who voted against the proposal were mostly "teachers who may lose their jobs."

Chapin, Loggins, Dolly, Mac Davis, Andy Gibb in Festival

The first announcement of programming for the tenth annual Mississippi River Festival (MRP) at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was announced Thursday evening by representatives of the Naderlander organization. The announcement came four weeks after the university signed a contract for lease of MRP facilities to the Naderlanders, one of the largest promoters of entertainment in the United States.

Wayne Naderlander, who was present for Thursday's news conference in the University Center, said additional attractions are being negotiated and will be announced later. The initial schedule includes: June 3 — Marshall Tucker Band, June 15 — Andy Gibb, June 17 — Average White Band, June 22 — America, June 28 — Dolly Parton, June 28 — Chuck Mangione, July 1 — Outlaws, July 13 — L.S. Dye, July 13 — Charlie Daniels Band, July 14 — Dobie Doolittle, July 15 — Kenny Rogers, July 16 — Teddy Pendergrass, July 21 — Dave Mason, Aug. 2 — Jimmy Buffet, Aug. 7 — Phoebe Snow & Gato Barbieri, Aug. 10 — Harry Chapin, Aug. 11 — Peter, Paul & Mary, Aug. 18 — Sha Na Na, Aug. 20 — Heart, Aug. 26 — Mac Davis.

"We have never gone into anything this quickly," Naderlander said.

"The time element we are working with is a very big factor in regard to scheduling performances for the 1978 season. We have already begun negotiations for the 1979 season."

Naderlander said mail orders for tickets will be accepted immediately, and an announcement will be made soon regarding ticket outlet locations in the area.

There will be two admission prices for this year's festival: $5 for lawn seats and $7.50 for reserved seats.

Naderlander introduced Peggy Wells, who has been appointed general manager of the MRP and has moved to Edwardsville. A veteran of eight years with the Naderlander organization, she comes to the MRP from the Merryweather Post Pavilion, Columbia, Md., one of three outdoor Naderlander operations with which she has been associated.

Pressing on . . . Getting back to the basics

Among tennis teaching professionals there are a number of issues that have been hotly debated for years. Should the racket be drawn straight back or in a circle?

On the follow-through, should the racket come to a stop in front of the body or over the left shoulder? Should the knees extend or stay bent?

On the forehand, should the wrist be laid back or should it be straight? Should the angle between the racket and forearm be 90, 100 or 110 degrees?

Can you imagine trying to play tennis with all these questions swirling around in the front of your head?

Many students do, in fact, it was one of these confused student-players who named this state of confusion "Paralysis by Analysis."

One of the cures for this unfortunate malady is to go back to the basics. Instead of spending your mental energies on specifics, concentrate on the following three fundamentals.

One, prepare the racket early. Regardless how you do it—circle or straight back—get it back before the ball bounces. Then you'll be able to make an unforced, deliberate stroke, hitting the ball as far in front as possible.

Two, be on balance. You'll improve your chances of making a solid, authoritative shot if you get your weight on your front foot, bend your knee, and hit from a balanced position.

Three, follow through. Hit through the ball, not at it. Make your groundstrokes long and fluid.

Mastering these three fundamentals will make the game easier to play. But I'm sure you know that already. We all do.

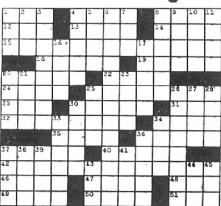

Then why do some people get so defensive when an instructor reminds them that early racket preparation determines how effective a shot will be? "I know, I know," they say.

But do they? Intentionally they understand perfectly; physically, they have a lot to learn.

They need to go out and practice it until they learn it so they can do it without thinking about it.

Who wouldn't howl?

Q I was given a 4-year-old Siamese cat which I had neutered. How long does this take to be effective?

Does this keep a cat from roaming? I live right by a highway and am concerned. Also, he howls. I kept him in a week for this. What else can I do?

Thanks. —H.W.

A. The effects of neutering should be evident in two to three weeks. However, a cat may continue to roam to some degree when neutered at this late age.

Also, you must realize that it may take a period of time for the cat to adjust to his new environment. He may howl more than usual because of the many changes that have occurred in his life at this time.

You should also be aware that Siamese cats tend to be very vocal animals. The recommendation I can give is be patient and give the cat plenty of tender, loving care.

All about the war of 1957

DROPSHOT, edited by Anthony Cave Brown; Dial Press; 330 pages; $12.95. This purports to be the "inside" on a U.S. plan to wage world war against Russia in 1957. The plan was devised during the 1949 administration of President Harry S. Truman, when atomic war was predicted for Jan. 1, 1957. It is somewhat of a scare story. Less excited historians might say that Pentagon contingency plans exist for both small and large wars with dozens of nations around the world. However, scare stories are popular today and "DropsHOT" likely will have a brief, but brisk sales.

I like pickles and I'm gaining weight

I am overweight and love pickles. I understand they are low in calories. Is it OK for me to eat them at any time?

—Miss E. P.

Dear Miss E. P.: Pickles are low in calories, but high in sodium and this will tend to make you retain water and thus weight. While trying to lose weight I would suggest you forego the pickles.

Where can I find Fonzie?

Q. I have an unusual request. I am interested in buying a Fonzie poster. I have looked high and low and I haven't had any luck. Could you help me? —R.Z.

A. I suggest you write to the distributors of the poster, Dargis Associates, Inc., 8520 Gervin Lane, Columbia, Md. 21045.

Retraced strokes in handwriting can reflect emotions

Everyone tells me that I am a calm person. Yet, I feel terribly tense and frustrated most of the time. What is my problem? —S.K.

Dear S.K.: Clogged emotional openings are suffocating your output.

Repression, as it is called, is seen in the consistently retraced strokes. It is a constant and unconscious act, employed to escape unpleasant memories, ideas, and feelings. While you can't recall such happenings, they do influence your behavior. You are calm, outwardly because you are so highly controlled. But, down deep, there's wild commotion. Punning abounds inside, seen in the t's crossed to the right. This is made even stronger by the pressure of your writing and that little "check mark" beginning stroke on m. It is triggered by a deep need to release and to expound. Your mind has peddled your emotions.

Unexpressed frustration thwarts your goals and joins hands with the futility of anger. So, all of this turmoil on inside pressurizes your inner self. Such pressure builds up until it breaks down the control, spills over, and the result is emotional eruption. This is what could happen. So, best you slowly loosen the ties which bind you, before backed up emotions, with no release at all, let themselves against you and burst through with unrecognizable force.

Republican Women hear Paul Bowler

Paul Bowler, 7th ward alderman, Granite City, was the guest speaker at the Granite City Republican Women's Club meeting held at the Grand Cafe.

He is a member of the Planning and Zoning committee for the city, and he spoke on the Horseshoe Lake Development, near Lakeside Airport.

Bowler said money is necessary for a feasibility study, and one square mile is essential for the development. If federal funding is available 90 percent may be provided by the federal government with an approximate 1.5 million dollar total cost figure.

There is a possibility of attracting small industry, however, some residents are concerned with devaluation of property and the noise level. Compromises are needed, Bowler noted and he suggested a referendum with the final decision to be with the people.

President Edna Kohlbrecher opened the meeting with Roy Lynn giving the invocation and Ray Edwards Jr., leading the pledge to the flag.

Acting secretary, Mrs. Edmund Firmer read the report, and Mrs. Eva Meier gave the St. Mary-St. Mark School will hold graduation ceremonies at the 11 a.m. Mass on Sunday, May 28, at St. Mary's Church, Madison.

Diplomas will be awarded to 28 students, according to Sister Barbara, school principal.

Graduates are: Joseph Anselmo, Jeanne Bilbrey, Maryann Bisto, Judith Bork, Brian Feden, Ronald Buechler, Gary Burger, Carl Byrnes, Tracy Champion, Teresa Childers, Vincent Dohnal, Kenneth Gordon, Raymond Griffin, Angela Grupus, Gloria Hartman, Anthony Hudzik, Karen Lapinski, Thomas McCosky, Nancy Mikolaszuk, William Papa, Edward Peterson, Deneen Sak, Tina Scaturro, Ramona Sch-

treasurer's statement. The club agreed to take a $25 advertisement in the state federation ad book.

Concerning the open primary, Mrs. George Walker noted that a recent open primary in Michigan attracted only 24.9 percent of the voters while 25 percent voted in Illinois, which does not have an open primary.

Mrs. Janet Wilson, candidate for representative in the 30th district, told the group she took part in a loyalty parade in Wood River, recently, and she believes the Republicans can elect two representatives from this district.

There will be a rummage sale at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Wilson, 2623 Madison Ave., all day on Saturday, May 20, to benefit Mrs. Wilson's campaign. Donations will be accepted by calling 876-5748, the president said.

Mrs. Kohlbrecher announced the club will host the fall meeting of the Madison County Federation of Republican Women's Clubs, at a 6:30 p.m. dinner on Oct. 16.

The June 6th meeting will be at 6 p.m., at the Grand Cafe, Mrs. Louise Dutko added.

REVIVAL CRUSADE NOW IN PROGRESS AT BETHESDA TEMPLE

22nd and State St.
7:30 EACH EVENING

The Evangelist for these services, for the first time in this area will be:

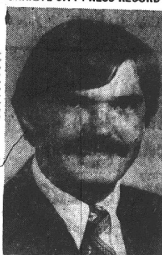

Evangelist Edward Spain from Reform, Alabama

We feel this is a time for Holy Ghost restoration, a spiritual awakening, a time to move into a deeper, more spiritual realm with God. We believe you can receive this in these services. There will be the gifts of the spirit in operation. Holy Ghost power will be in demonstration.

How long has it been since YOU had a miracle? Are YOU sick in body, tired, cold and indifferent in your soul? A touch of God in your life is what you need. Members of all faiths are invited.

Driver arrested on two charges

Observing a vehicle traveling east on Route 162, near Nameoki Road at 2:50 a.m. Friday, officers halted the car near the railroad track on Route 162 and charged David J. Baker, 20, of St. Louis County, Mo., with reckless driving and driving while his license is revoked.

While talking to the driver, police said, a second vehicle came alongside and a passenger, Vicki Lynn Harper, 21, of St. Charles, Mo., alighted. The woman told officers the auto operated by Baker belonged to her and she was charged with permitting an unauthorized person to drive.

He added, "Anyone can participate in the jogathon by picking up a pledge contract. All you need to do is declare to jog so many miles and receive pledges from any person, business or firm for so much per mile."

"As a bonus for participants, the male and the female who collect the greatest amount of money in pledges will receive a gift certificate."

"These finishing second will get the shirts."

Bypass surgery in area praised

Patients undergoing coronary bypass operations at St. Louis University hospitals often survive longer and live better than patients treated non-surgically for chronic heart pain (angina pectoris), a surgeon at the St. Louis University hospitals reported Thursday evening in a comparison with a much-discussed Veterans Administration study.

The report was given during a two-day conference, "Current Approach to Coronary Artery Disease: Medical, Surgical and Nursing Management."

George C. Kaiser, M.D., professor of surgery, St. Louis University School of Medicine, cited results from a study of 345 recipients of coronary bypass surgery performed at St. Louis U. hospitals during 1972-1974. The identical time period used in the VA cooperative study.

The St. Louis patients experienced better four-year survival rates, less operative risk, and greater short-term and long-term vein graft success, he related.

The VA study, which involved 286 coronary artery disease patients treated operatively and 310 patients treated non-operatively in VA hospitals, claims there was no difference in the four-year survival rate between operative and non-operative treatment during its project study period.

Dr. Kaiser pointed out that four-year survival is fully 85 percent for patients surgically treated for coronary artery disease at the university hospitals, while the same survival rate for patients in the VA study is 85 percent.

Patient mortality risk during the coronary bypass operation at St. Louis University Hospitals was 2.3 percent, but surgical risk in the VA group was more than double that of St. Louis University, at 5.6 percent.

At one year after coronary bypass surgery, the vein grafts of patients in the university study group remained open in 87 percent of the cases; only 71 percent of the VA study group grafts remained open one year later.

Currently, in those St. Louis University patients eligible for five year follow-up, the survival rate is 91 percent, with 80 percent of all patients angina free or minimally symptomatic. Dr. Kaiser noted that all of the St. Louis University results are better than the medical results of the VA cooperative study.

950 attend BPW state convention

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
at the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's 57th annual convention in St. Louis 59 years ago.

More than 950 Business and Professional Women attended the 57th annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis.

Dorine Chancellor, second vice-president of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women, was the national representative at the "Gateway to Achievement" convention and the keynote speaker.

She has been a business educator for 12 years at Eastern Arizona College, where she chairs the Division of Business. She is listed in "Outstanding Educators of America."

Currently completing work toward her doctoral degree at Arizona State University, Miss Chancellor is a former resident of Watsela, Ill., and received her B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Illinois College of Commerce.

Advancing the status of working women in America continues to be the main thrust of political action, education, career advancement and job training programs supported by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's organization, Miss Chancellor said.

The top priority action of Congress and state legislatures for the benefit of working women remains passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, she pointed out, noting that many of the needed changes in attitude toward working women started because of the push for passage of ERA.

Future projections and current profiles in the nation's work advancement, noting that many changes in laws and public attitudes to provide opportunities for women to work, she said.

Miss Chancellor noted that some 12 million women will join the nation's labor force by 1990, compared to 10 million men. The average working woman has 12.5 years of education, the same as her male counterpart.

— Women now hold an increasing number of professional positions, constituting 9.5 per cent of U.S. judges and lawyers, 12.8 per cent of physicians and 24.7 per cent of bank officials and financial managers.

In higher education, Miss Chancellor said, one out of five graduate business school students is a woman, and one out of four students in law or medical school is a woman.

Some 400 women are now on corporate boards of directors, compared to only 20 just five years ago, Miss Chancellor said.

"We are the largest national foundation devoted to women helping women," the Arizona educator reminded the audience.

The national officer also installed Lucille Ann Schott of the Metropolitan Business and Professional Women's Club, in St. Louis and saw the local club receive several state federation awards.

Six committees honored for achievement with awards, included legislation, Olie Derr, chairman; Young Careerist, Linda Wetton, program; LaVelle Stephens and Betty Nugent, co-chairmen; foundation, Rosalie Stern; Individual Development, Florence Moore, and membership, Judith McCann (national award for equalization).

Mrs. Vernon BPW Club was named "Club of the Year."

Principal speaker at the installation banquet was Betty Rollin, an NBC news correspondent and author of the bestseller, "First You Cry," a personal story about her own mastectomy.

At the present time, the book is being made into a television movie in which Mary Tyler Moore is portraying Betty Rollin.

A native New Yorker, Mrs. Rollin is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College. Her earlier books are "I Thee Wed," "Mothers Are Funnier Than Children" and the "Non-Drinkers Drink Book."

She has been an actress, features editor of Vogue Magazine and a staff writer and senior editor at Look. She joined NBC as a reporter in 1971.

Wilma K. Harpole, Mount Vernon, president-elect; Colleen Forry, Rockford, first vice president; Alina Holland, South Suburban (Chicago area), second vice president; Elizabeth Mutka, West Suburban (Chicago area), recording secretary; and Betty Bolanos, Mount Prospect, treasurer.

Pre-school registration

The Granite City Park District will have pre-school registration Tuesday at the Wilson Park office beginning at 9 a.m. for the summer session beginning June 12 which will run for seven weeks.

There also will be a class for children who currently are attending kindergarten. Registration for this class will be at the same time as the pre-school program.

Parents interested in enrolling their children in either of these classes must do so in person and present proof of residence, such as a current utility bill, and the child's birth certificate.

A child must be 4 years old before June 1 in order to qualify for this session. Classes will be limited to 35 per session and enrollment will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. Anyone living out of the Granite City Park District will be placed on a waiting list and will be notified on June 12 if there still are openings.

Classes will meet at the Nameki Recreation Center, Franklin and Amos avenues with morning classes from 9-10 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. and afternoon classes from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. During the seven-week period there will be field trips, picnics, sessions at the Wilson Park Pool and other events.

Registration for the fall pre-school program will be in August with the date to be announced later. For more information Quad-Cities may call the Wilson Park office.

and level out your home utility payments

If you are eligible for Budget Billing, we've calculated the amount your monthly payment would be for your residential account. You'll find this figure on the top half of this month's Illinois Power bill.

Under Budget Billing you pay the same amount each month for your natural gas or electricity. Instead of wide fluctuations due to weather, you know what your monthly payments will be.

The amount shown for your budget payments is based on past use. Each May your bill will be adjusted to reflect your actual use of energy for the year. Any difference will be refunded or billed to you.

This is the perfect time to begin Budget Billing and level out your utility payments all through the hot summer and cold winter months ahead. Just mark the box on the top part of the bill and return with payment in full for the May bill.

Varied service by partnerless parents

A wide range of community service work as well as social programs occupy Parents Without Partners Granite City Chapter 470, Granite City Rotarians were told last week.

Mrs. Arlene Boner, chapter president, and Mrs. Virginia Sampson addressed the club. President Donald Shaffner presided and Leonard Yelton served as program chairman. There are 65 members of the local chapter and 2,000 in 16 St. Louis metropolitan area units, it was related. Single parents in the nation total 11,500,000, including over 2,500 in the Quad-Cities.

Strong emphasis is placed on group activities and other ways of bolstering the development of youngsters in families where the parents are no longer together, the club was told.

It was asserted that "as conscientious single parents, it is our primary endeavor to bring our children to healthy maturity, with the full sense of being loved and accepted as persons—and with the same prospects for normal adulthood as children who mature with their two parents together.

"It is the child who suffers the most. For him or her to grow to adulthood unscathed requires the utmost in understanding and sound guidance."

Four specialties open in Air Force

An accelerated promotion program for people enlisting in the Air Force for training in one of four critical specialties was announced today by Air Force officials here.

"People enlisting before May 31 and selecting technical training in security, munitions maintenance, space processing or fuel specialties will be eligible for promotion to airman (E-2) after completing the six-week Air Force basic course at Lackland AFB, Texas," recruiting service officials said. Normally, promotion to the rank of airman comes after six months in the Air Force.

"The promotion increases the pay and allowances for a person without dependents from $564 to $615 monthly and from $625 to $676 monthly for an airman with dependents," officials said.

For more information on this special enlistment option and other Air Force opportunities, Quad-Cities may contact: TSgt. Jim Markham, 1204 Niedringhaus Ave., Granite City, at 876-5225.

Foot health week

An older person's outlook on life is often determined by his ability to participate actively in it, according to research studies cited by a Granite City podiatrist, Dr. Claude A. Hiles.

"If an elderly individual can no longer get around, he begins to feel useless and shut out of life," Dr. Hiles said. "In many cases this is due to foot problems which can be corrected through regular care."

He and other members of the Illinois Podiatry Society are seeking to inform the elderly about the importance of foot health care, in observance of National Foot Health Week May 9-15.

"We have found it true in our area, and in studies conducted across the country, that foot disorders — and the limitation of mobility they can cause — bring on feelings of despondence and helplessness which can be harmful to both the physical and emotional health of the elderly," he said.

Dr. Hiles said many older people are confined to bed or restricted in activity because of foot disorders that could have been, and still can be, corrected by professional care.

He cited a recent study conducted in a geriatric care center near Philadelphia which uncovered 811 foot disorders among the 551 residents. In addition, he said, the White House Conference on Aging underscored the value of greater attention to foot health needs, and called for quality foot care in any comprehensive program for the elderly.

"Foot health is an important part of the entire family's health care routine, and regular checkups are the best way to ensure feet which will keep on working throughout the retirement years.

"In many cases, foot problems among older people prove to be trifles about neglect during their younger years. Feet must last a lifetime."

Taylor is race winner

Dick Taylor of Springfield, Ill., was the winner of the late model feature race Saturday night as Tri-City Speedway again defied the predictions of the weatherman and conducted a full auto racing program.

Taylor did not have an easy victory as he was chased throughout the feature race by East Alton's Bill Myers, who finished second. Mike Hammer of St. Charles, Mo., was third and Gary Potter of Valley Park, Mo., finished fourth.

The late model feature race was slowed by a restart and several yellow flags caused by accidents. In one spectacular accident, the car of Walt Wentzel, St. Louis, got sideways in the second turn, was broadcasted by another car and flipped, landing on its top.

Taylor crawled out, saying he was not injured and he remained at the track through the end of the program.

Myers made a strong showing in the race, which was his first since he suffered an eye injury during the winter. Laser beams were used to remove a layer of metal which became imbedded in an eye when a gear exploded while Myers was working on it. Before the race, Myers said he was doubtful whether he would be able to race to his full capacity, but he remained close behind Taylor all 25 laps of the race.

Red Bailey of Granite City appeared to have broken his two-year old bad luck streak as he handily won the late model trophy dash and led the first 13 laps of the semi-feature race. However, a loud "ping" was heard as he passed the grandstands after the 13th lap and he quickly dropped back in the pack.

He explained later the sound was the result of his car jumping out of fourth gear and the shifting mechanism breaking.

Subsequent attempts to race while holding the car manually in fourth gear, or to keep pace in third gear with the other cars, were unsuccessful, so Bailey had to pull into the pits and revert to the spectator ranks the remainder of the evening.

John Wolfmeier of St. Louis finished first in a tight three-way race with Paul Humphrey Sr. of St. Louis and Les Gibson of Granite City in the sportsman car feature race.

Willie Johnson won the late-model semi-feature race followed by Paul Glaub and Bert Griffin. Late-model heat winners were Taylor, Rick Standridge of Springfield, and Potter.

Winning sportsman heat races were Wolfmeier and Humphrey.

Rain preceding the feature races threatened to halt the racing program, but it subsided long enough to allow the program to be run in full.

Other season averages were:

Klay Tiemann and Bob Glazebrook of O'Fallon, 82 and 83.17, respectively; Steve Kaiping, Don Kaiping and Dave Kaiping of Waterloo, 82.25, 83 and 86.5, respectively; Brett Thomas of Troy, 82.50; James Louis of Granite City, 88; Brian Maine, Willie Blake and Bill Ross of Belleville, 89.33, 90.66 and 85.5, respectively.

Other golfers who participated throughout the season but were not part of the final teams are Vance Northern with a season average of 80 and Butch Lewis, whose average was also 80.

Dr. Louis Reibling, BAC's gold coach, indicated that he expects an even more successful season next year when several of this year's low scorers will return. The "B" team finished with a record of 2-5 with their match average of 338.50.

Cougars drop twin bill; kiss playoffs goodbye

Randy Manley grounded out to the shortstop and the Cougar threat of tying the game and gave the Leathernecks the victory.

Western got its one run in the fifth inning when second baseman Joe Caravia singled to left field, breaking up Hendrickson's own no-hit bid. He was sent to third when left fielder Bill Marcuza singled to right. He scored when third baseman Eric Doss hit into a fielder's choice.

IN THE SECOND GAME, Western jumped on Cougar pitcher Jay Coughlin for seven hits and four of its runs during the first 5-2-3 innings before reaching reliever Brian McFarland for its final two hits and three runs.

The Leathernecks scored twice in both the fifth and sixth innings and three times in the final stanza.

'Craziness...'

By KATV SMALL
To get themselves "up" for a game, the women softball Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville do crazy, crazy things before, during and after games. One such example is to pretend to be a "Conehead" of "Saturday Night Live" fame on television. If it takes dumb stuff like that to win, I'll be a Conehead every game," said leftfielder Jo Brooks.
One thing's for sure, it psyches out the other team," added third-baseman Jerri Wilson.
The queen of the Coneheads, or so she thinks, is Brooks. "We're having a pageant at the state tournament (May 44 at Western Ill. University). Me, Tammy Rainwater (pitcher) and Amy Frey (centerfielder) are competing, but I'm going to win, of course," she stated.

According to Brooks, the pageant will have three categories: Conehead song, Conehead call and Conehead dress. There will be three judges for the contest, and entertainment will be provided by pitcher Denna Raina and first-baseman Kathy Going.
BACK to serious business, the softball team sports a 14-8 record, and one reason the squad is on the winning end is the experienced senior, Brooks.
"Our team has a lot of talent — we'll be starting to peak at the state tournament," said Brooks. "We have pulled a lot of surprises this year — such as defeating SIU-Carbondale for the first time in any sport, and defeating University of Missouri-St. Louis for the first time. We have an excellent chance of winning state," she predicted.

Brooks is not happy with her hitting this year. "Last year, I was a .300 hitter — I don't know what's wrong. I don't strike out much, but I don't get good hits — I always make some kind of contact through," she said.
The leftfielder said, "I like to hit — it is one of my high points. As far as fielding is concerned, Brooks feels she does the job. "Sometimes I make spectacular plays, sometimes I let them drop," she candidly admitted.

Since Brooks is a senior and has played for SIUE for four years, all of her eligibility is nearly up. "I'm really going to miss being on a Cougar team," she said.
Brooks is also involved in a summer fast pitch league with the highly-rated Maryville (Illinois) Aces. To play 70 games during the summer is not unusual for the Aces. Last year, the team captured second in the Amateur Softball Association state tournament and went on to win third in the regionals, with teams from several states competing. Had the Aces won second place, they would have advanced to the national tournament in California.
Brooks has been with the team four years and has always played outfield for both the Aces and the Cougars. "There's more room to move around out there and not as much pressure. I'd hate to be on the infield," she said.

The leftfielder said she wants to stick with softball. "I can see myself playing softball when I'm 40. After all, I don't want to get old and fat," she laughed. Brooks, at 5'1", has weighed 130 pounds for the last five years.
About Coach Cindy Jones, she said: "She really knows her softball. She's excited about the sport because she knows she's got a good team. We've all grown together. I don't know what she's going to do without us."

Nice weather... for a duck

Rain, rain, rain.
Mother nature has once again pulled a whammy on the area sports scene. Thursday night rains caused the cancellation of Friday's baseball games for Granite City North, Granite City South and Madison, as well as Saturday's North and South contests.

The sun came out a little Friday evening and some on Saturday, but that was just to confuse the issue, the games already having been called off. Saturday night and again yesterday, the skies opened and washed out the opening day games of the Illinois Intercity League. The games will be made up, but as of press time today, the only one announced is the Mitchell-Thomas game which was to have been played yesterday in Mitchell. It will be made up on Tuesday, May 16 at the Cahokia American Legion Field at 6 p.m. It will be a regular seven-inning doubleheader.

LITTER CANS FOR BUSES. Bi-State Development Agency Executive Director Barry M. Locke inspects the first of 1,000 new "Stash The Trash" containers which are being placed in all area buses as part of Bi-State's clean-up campaign. With Locke are, from left, agency employees Carolyn Feuchtenbeiner of Shrewsbury, Mo., Patti Krazer of Belleville, Sylvia Quarles, St. Louis, and Penny Taylor of Collinsville.

'Stash the Trash' cans placed in Bi-State buses

Things are going to get rough for candy wrappers, old newspapers, soda cans and other discarded debris which have proven to be a nuisance aboard Bi-State buses. The agency has embarked on a system-wide clean-bus campaign to "Stash The Trash" which will include the provision of colorful new receptacles plainly marked for use in depositing trash. The program is being initiated in conjunction with the purchase of new vacuum cleaning systems and exterior bus-washing equipment. Bi-State Executive Director Barry M. Locke, in announcing the new effort, said the "Stash The Trash" theme will be emphasized through interior advertising cards, radio advertisements, and a special issue of the monthly rider publication, "Going Your Way."

Readers of the free "take-one" distributed on all Bi-State buses will be asked to complete a postage paid return card if they wish to comment on any cleanliness deficiencies in the particular vehicle they are riding. "Bus cleanliness has been a growing concern at Bi-State as our fleet has expanded and as ridership continues to increase," Locke noted. "In the same way that we are making an appeal to our riders not to smoke on the bus, we are now asking that they also take part of the responsibility for keeping the seats and floors clean to the benefit of everyone using our system."

"Our clean-up crews are being given the most modern bus washing and vacuuming equipment available to
